Preface

You may ask yourself the following questions:

- 1- Am I a true follower of Jesus Christ?
- 2- Am I really looking for truth, or am I truth's enemy?
- 3- Was Jesus Christ a Christian or a Muslim?

This book is for all Christians who seek the truth sincerely and honestly.

I have attempted to provide consolidated information from resourceful books and web sites and arrange them in summarized comparative tables in a straight forward manner.

I appeal to the reader to examine this book with an unbiased mind and open heart to the truth because this is the only way that may lead to the right decision that shapes one's life in this world and the world to come.

Introduction

Christ is derived from the ancient Greek: Χριστός, Khristós, meaning 'anointed', which is a translation of the Hebrew מָשִׁיחַ (Māšîaḥ), the Messiah, and is used as a title for Jesus.	Islam means Complete and Perfect Peaceful Submission to the Will of Almighty God.
The word "Christian" simply means "A Follower of Christ" or "Christ-ian".	The word "Muslim" simply means a person who Submits his Will to Almighty God.

Jesus May Allah's Peace and Blessings be Upon Him (PBUH) said:

"Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill. For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled." (Matthew 5:17-18).	"He said to them, "This is what I told you while I was still with you: Everything must be fulfilled that is written about me in the Law of Moses, the Prophets and the Psalms." (Luke 24:44).
---	---

Jesus (PBUH) did not have the authority to abrogate the law. He (PBUH) only had the authority to fulfill, reaffirm, clarify and apply it to new or specific situations.

Comparison	The way of Jesus Christ (PBUH) Following the earlier Prophets and Fulfilling their Laws.
1- PURITY Ablution Before the Prayer 	Moses (PBUH) and Aaron (PBUH) made ablution before prayer, they washed their hands and feet whenever they entered the Tent of Meeting or approached altar for prayer. This was a Divine command: (Exodus 40:31-32). David (PBUH): (Psalm 26:6), (2 Samuel 12:20). Jesus (PBUH) did not oppose ablution before prayer. It was mentioned in (James 4:8) "Come near to God and He will come near to you. Wash your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts,....". Jesus (PBUH) carefully followed and fulfilled this law, because it was a Divine command.

Christians' way	Muslims' way
Christians do not make ablution before praying in their Churches. Christians do not wash their hands and feet before they pray as commanded by Almighty God. Christians do not follow the law fulfilled by Jesus (PBUH).	Muslims make ablution before praying in their Mosques, Muslims wash their hands, feet, face ...etc. The Noble Qur'an (5:6). Uthman ibn Affan (may Allah be pleased with him) stated that the Prophet Muhammad (PBUH), said, He who performed ablution well, his sins would come out from his body, even coming out from under his nails. (Sahih Muslim).

2- Putting off the shoes before Praying 	Moses (PBUH) received the Divine command to put off his sandals (shoes) before entering and praying on the holy ground: (Exodus 3:5) and (Acts 7:33). Jesus (PBUH) carefully followed and fulfilled this law because it was a Divine command .

Christians' way	Muslims' way
Christians do not put off their shoes before entering and praying in their Churches. Christians do not follow the law fulfilled by Jesus (PBUH).	Muslims put off their shoes before entering and praying in their Mosque. The Noble Qur'an (20:11-12).

3- Precise times for daily prayer 	The Biblical times of prayer are: Evening, morning, and at noon: (Psalm 55:17), even several prayers can be situated within these three times, It was stated in (Psalm 119:164) `Seven times a day do I praise you, ...'. The early morning dawn prayer was mentioned in the Aramaic Bible in Plain English: (Psalms 5:3), before dawn prayer: (Psalms 119:147). Prayer at midnight: (Psalms 119:62). There are precise times for prayer: (Psalm 32:6), (Psalm 69:13). It was obviously unacceptable, according to David (PBUH), to neglect the proper times of prayer. Jesus (PBUH) carefully followed and fulfilled this law.

Christians' way	Muslims' way
Many Christians observe a more informal pattern of morning and evening prayers, blessing or prayer before meals, this type of informality lacks the precision and repetition. Christians do not follow the law fulfilled by Jesus (PBUH).	Muslims must regularly pray five times a day at precise times, each prayer requires about five to 10 minutes. These five prayers occur at precise times: 1 dawn, 2 afternoon, 3 later afternoon, 4 following sunset, 5 night. There are also other optional prayers. The Noble Qur'an: (20:132), (7:205), (33:42), (48:9), (76:25), (24:58), (52:49), (17:78), (11:114), (20:130).

4- Prayer toward a particular direction Jerusalem  (Ka'bah) in Mecca 	David (PBUH) worshiped Almighty God toward the direction of the holy temple: (Psalm 5:7), (Psalm 138:2), according to Gill's Exposition of the Entire Bible "Not the temple at Jerusalem, which was not yet built... but rather the tabernacle of Moses, in which was the ark.", however the tabernacle of Moses was not a holy temple!, then the question is: what was the other holy temple that David (PBUH) prayed toward its direction?! Solomon (PBUH) prayed toward the direction of the holy temple in Jerusalem: (2 Chronicles 6:21), Daniel (PBUH): (Daniel 6:10), Jonah (PBUH) : (Jonah 2:7). At the time of Jesus (PBUH), the direction of prayer was toward Jerusalem: (John 4:20-21). Jesus (PBUH) said that the true worshipers will worship God in "spirit and truth": (John 4:23-24), which means "they will be sincere in their worship", it does not mean that they will worship God in any direction. Jesus (PBUH) carefully followed the earlier prophets and prayed toward the direction of the holy temple.

Early churches were built so that the direction of the assembly faced East, as a symbol of Christ (the rising sun). It was also common to pray facing Jerusalem. Later Christians prayed in any direction. Christians do not follow Jesus (PBUH) and do not pray toward a particular direction.	The early Muslims prayed toward the direction of Jerusalem for a short time, then Almighty God (Allah) instructed the Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) to change the direction of prayer and pray toward the direction of the holy mosque (Ka'bah) in Mecca (Makkah). The Noble Qur'an: (2:144).

5- Prostration with the forehead on the earth 	The earlier Prophets and their followers prostrated in prayer, they bowed with their faces touching the ground, Abraham (PBUH): (Genesis 17:3), (Genesis 17:17), Moses (PBUH) and Aaron (PBUH): (Exodus 34:8), (Numbers 16:22), (Numbers 20:6), Joshua (PBUH): (Joshua 5:14), (Joshua 7:6), Elijah (PBUH): (1 Kings 18:42), David (PBUH): (Psalms 22:29), (1 Samuel 20:41), after Solomon (PBUH) finished prayer: (2 Chronicles 7:3), during the prayer of Ezra (PBUH): (Nehemiah 8:6), the Holy Angels: (Revelation 7:11). Jesus Christ (PBUH) never invited people to worship him instead of God, or as God, or as son of God. This law was stated very clearly in (Numbers 23:19): "God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent...". God is not a man: (1 Samuel 15:29), (Hosea 11:9). Jesus (PBUH) carefully followed and fulfilled this law, and bowed with his face touching the ground and prayed to Almighty God: (Matthew 26:39), (Mark 14:35), even the disciples of Jesus (PBUH) did the same: (Matthew 17:6).

Christians kneel down in front of the cross, clasping their hands in prayer, they perform the sign of the cross by tracing a large cross from forehead to chest and then shoulder to shoulder, this performance can't be ascribed to Jesus (PBUH). Christians do not bow with their faces touching the ground, they do not prostrate with their foreheads on the earth. Christians do not follow the same worshiping way of Jesus (PBUH).	Muslims prostrate in prayer, they bow with their faces touching the ground during their daily prayers. The Noble Qur'an: (22:77), (7:206), (13:015), (17:109), (19:058), (25:060), (96:019), (32:015), (38:024), (53:062), (76:026), (10:9-10).

6- Spreading up the hands after prayer 	Solomon (PBUH) spread up his hands after prayer and praised Almighty God and asked His blessings: (1 Kings 8:54). Jesus (PBUH) carefully followed and fulfilled this practice.

Christians' way	Muslims' way
Christians do not spread up their hands after prayer. Christians do not follow the practice fulfilled by Jesus (PBUH).	Muslims spread up their hands after prayer, they praise Almighty God, ask His forgiveness and seek His blessings. 7- Fasting 	Moses (PBUH) fasted for forty days by neither eat nor drink, he did neither eat bread, nor drink water: (Deuteronomy 9:9), (Exodus 34: 28). Earlier prophets also fasted, David (PBUH): (2 Samuel 12:22), Elijah (PBUH): (1 Kings 19:8), Ezra (PBUH): (Ezra 10:6), Daniel (PBUH): (Daniel 9:3). Special months of fasting were instituted during the Babylonian captivity of Judah: (Zechariah 8:19). A specific fast day: (Jeremiah 36:6). A precise month for fasting (the ninth month): (Jeremiah 36:9). Jesus Christ (PBUH) fulfilled this law, and fasted for forty days by neither eat nor drink, afterward Jesus (PBUH) was hungry: (Matthew 4:2), (Matthew 6:16), (Matthew 17:21). Jesus (PBUH) carefully followed and fulfilled this law.

Christians' way	Muslims' way
The way that Christians fast differs, some Christians abstain from solid food, others don't eat special foods as (meat, fish, chicken and eggs), some others don't drink special drinks as (milk and wine). Christians don't fast like Jesus (PBUH) by neither eat nor drink for a certain period of time, they do not taste hunger and thirst. Christians do not follow the law fulfilled by Jesus (PBUH).	Muslims fast from dawn until dusk for the whole month of Ramadan (ninth lunar month) , abstaining from food, drink, sexual intercourse, smoking, backbiting, lying and some other pleasures. Muslims taste hunger and thirst, the fasting helps them to obey God, be more sensitive to the sufferings of others, develop self-discipline and appreciate their unity. 8- A Messenger and a Prophet of God 	Jesus (PBUH) asserted that he was sent by God, i.e. A Messenger of Almighty God: (John 7:16), (John 17:3), (John 5:30), (John 4:34), (John 6:38) and (John 11: 41-42). Jesus (PBUH) referred to himself as a Prophet: (Luke 13:33-34), others also called him a Prophet: (Luke 7:16), (Luke 24:17-22), (John 4:19), (John 6:14), (Matthew 21:11), (John 9:17). Jesus (PBUH) was referred to as a servant of God: (Acts 3:13), (Acts 4:27). Jesus (PBUH) was sent only for (the lost sheep of) the house of Israel and not to the Gentiles: (Matthew 10:5-6), (Matthew 15:24-27). Jesus (PBUH) was called "the son of Man": (Matthew 12:32), (Matthew 12:40), (Matthew 17:9), (John 6:27). Jesus (PBUH) was also described as 'a man approved by God': (Acts 2:22). This law was mentioned in the Old Testament: "God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent..." (Numbers 23:19), God is not a man: (1Samuel 15:29), (Hosea 11:9). The prayer of Jesus (PBUH) did not go unanswered, but was answered through the angel, which appeared, in order to strengthen him: (Luke 22:43). Jesus Christ (PBUH) fulfilled this law, he declared that he is a Messenger and a Prophet of God.

Christians believe that Jesus is the second member of the Triune God, the son of the first part of the Triune God, and at the same time "fully" God in every respect. 9- Submission to the Will of Almighty God (Islam)	Jesus (PBUH) Submitted himself to the Will of Almighty God: (Luke 22:42), (Matthew 26:39), (Mark 14:36). The oldest translation of the Bible was in Greek language, submission to God was mentioned: (James 4:7), in Old Greek language: (Υποτάγητε οὖν τῷ Θεῷ) and in modern Greek language: (Υποταχθείτε, λοιπόν, στον Θεό), the English translation: Submit yourself therefore to God, i.e. "Become a Muslim". Jesus (PBUH) worshiped Almighty God: (Luke 5:16), (Matthew 26:39), (Matthew 26:42), (Matthew 26:44). Jesus (PBUH) prayed and asked Almighty God for help even when he raised up Lazarus to life: (John 11:41-43). Jesus always expressed his subordination to Almighty God: (John 5:30), (John 14:31). 10- The name of Almighty God (the creator) 	Jesus (PBUH) spoke the Aramaic language, the name of God in Aramaic in the standard script is (ܫܠܘܨܐ), and in the Estrangela script is (ܫܠܘܨܐ) and read Alah, in Arabic language the name of God is (الله) and read Allah. In Hebrew language one of the basic Hebrew words for God, is (אלה) and read Eloh, can easily be pronounced Alah without the diacritical marks, the suffix "im" of the word (אֱלֹהִים) "Eloh-im" is a plural of respect in the Hebrew Bible: (Genesis 1:1). According to the Bible, Jesus (PBUH) used these two words ELI : (Matthew 27:46) and ELOI: (Mark 15:34), these two words ELI and ELOI are derived from the word Eloh (אֱלֹהִי) in Hebrew, Elah or Allah in Arabic and doesn't sound like "Jehovah".

12- Sons of God	The use of the phrase "sons of God" does not in itself imply deity and was a common phrase among Jews who called themselves "children of God" or "sons of God". The phrase "son of God" in the Bible was not limited only to Jesus. The Bible told us that God has many sons!. Jacob: (Exodus 4:22), Solomon: (2 Samuel 7:13-14), Ephraim: (Jeremiah 31:9), Adam (Luke 3:38), even common people were called "sons of God": (Deuteronomy 14:1), (Genesis 6:2), (Genesis 6:4), (Psalm 29:1), (Job

38:7), (Job 2:1), (Job 1:6).

Jesus (PBUH) spoke of "the peace makers" as "sons of God". In the Jewish tradition, any person who follows the Will of God was called the "son of God": (Genesis 6:2,4), (Exodus 4:22), (Jeremiah 31:9), (Psalms 2:7), (Luke 3:38), (Romans 8:14), (John 6:35). i.e. If Jesus said in the Bible that he is the "son of God", this does not elevate him to the rank of Almighty God.

Jesus (PBUH) never said "I am God worship me". he (PBUH) carefully followed the earlier prophets and fulfilled this law.

Christians' way

Christians worship Jesus the Son of the first part of the Triune God, they consider Jesus (PBUH) "fully" God in every respect.

Jesus (PBUH) himself refuted the trinity deception and never really praised it in the Bible. He even worshiped GOD Almighty Himself!

Christians do not follow the law fulfilled by Jesus (PBUH).

Muslims' way

Almighty God (Allah) never beget any son, any daughter, any wife. Almighty God doesn't need a son nor a wife to help Him in anything. He is the Absolute, One, Living True King.

Almighty God corrected the Jews' and Christians' "Son of God" misunderstanding.

"And they say: "(God) Most Gracious has begotten offspring." Glory to Him! they are (but) servants raised to honour." (The Noble Quran, 21:26)

19- Slaughtering of animals	The Hebrew term "Shechita" is the ritual slaughter of mammals and birds according to Jewish dietary laws: (Deuteronomy 12:21), (Deuteronomy 14:21), (Numbers 11:22).

The ritual slaughterer Bless God, and mention the Sovereign of the universe God's name alone, no idol's names are pronounced. The animal must be killed "with respect and compassion" by a ritual slaughterer, the act is performed by severing the trachea, esophagus, carotid arteries, jugular veins in a swift action using an extremely sharp blade. This results in an instant drop in blood pressure in the brain and the irreversible expiration of consciousness. At the end of the slaughtering process the meat becomes fit for consumption, called in Hebrew language "Kosher".

It was stated in Acts 15:20 "But that we write to them, that they abstain...from things strangled, and from blood." Jesus (PBUH) carefully followed and fulfilled these slaughtering rules.

Is slaughtering cruel?

This claim was examined through the use of EEG and ECG records during slaughter.

Christians' way

Before slaughtering some Christians mention the names of God in the Holy Trinity, others mention the name of Jesus Christ as a second member of the Triune God, others do not mention any name. Some Slaughtering companies strangle the animals to keep blood in the meat, this action was prohibited in (Acts 15:20), some other companies kill their animals by Captive bolt guns or applying strong Electric shock which incapacitates the animals.

The EEG readings indicated severe pain.

Christians do not follow the slaughtering rules mentioned in their Bible.

Christians do not follow the law fulfilled by Jesus (PBUH).

Muslims' way

There are many conditions for an Islamic slaughtering method (Zabiha), the main conditions are as follows: 1) The slaughterer must be a Muslim. 2) Making "Takbeer" at the time of slaughtering the animal, i.e. saying "Allahu Akbar" which means Almighty God (Allah) is Great. 3) that the throat, windpipe and jugular veins are cut. The meat becomes fresh for a longer time due to deficiency of blood and lawful for consumption, in Arabic it is called "Halal".

The EEG recorded a zero reading, indicating no pain at all.

23 Polygamy 	Polygamous marriages occurred among the Prophets before Jesus (PBUH). Abraham (PBUH) had three wives: (Genesis. 25:1) and concubines: (Genesis. 25:6). Jacob (PBUH) had 2 wives and 2 concubines: (Genesis 30:3,9). Moses (PBUH) had two wives: (Exodus

2:21), (Exodus 18:1-6), (Numbers 12:1). David (PBUH) had eight wives who were named in the Bible, but there were numerous other wives that were not named and more than ten concubines: (1 Chronicles 3:1-9), (2 Samuel 15:16), (2 Samuel 16:21-22), (2 Samuel 20:3). Solomon (PBUH) had 700 wives, princesses and 300 concubines (1 Kings 11:3).

Jesus never opposed or discussed the issue of the decreasing the number of wives and concubines. Jesus (PBUH) followed and fulfilled this law. According to Father Eugene Hillman that the Church in Rome banned polygamy in order to conform to Greco-Roman culture which prescribed only one legal wife while tolerating concubinage and prostitution. (Polygamy Reconsidered, p:140).

Christians' way

Many Christians make a great show of monogamy, but actually they practice polygamy, such as mistresses. It is now very usual to find in the Christian societies sexual relations outside of marriage, unlawful secret relationships & adultery.

The problem of the unbalanced sex ratios becomes a problem at times of war. polygamy continues to be a viable solution to some of the social ills of modern societies. Christians do not follow the law fulfilled by Jesus.

Muslims' way

Islam has permitted polygamy as a solution to social ills and has allowed a certain degree of latitude to human nature but only within the strictly defined framework of the law, (maximum of four wives at one time) and stipulated the maintenance of justice as a basic condition for polygamy.

The Noble Qur'an (4: 3).
